

British Values

& S.M.S.C

Mutual respect and tolerance

We celebrate all religious festivals.

We share stories that reflect non stereotypical images.

We support each other.

We use good manners.

We will be challenged if we say inappropriate things to our friends.

We appreciate Britain as a multicultural society.

We celebrate diversity.

Individual liberty

Our teachers help us build up our confidence.

We are encouraged to take risks and be resilient.

We are asked about our feelings and helped to manage them.

We have freedom to make choices.

We have a rainbow behaviour system.

We have a choice of learning challenges.

We are encouraged to think critically.

We talk about differences.

We negotiate arguments

We all have a right to an opinion.

Rule of law

We have golden rules in our school that we all must follow.

We receive rewards and certificates for good behaviour.

We have visits from emergency services.

We all have to help out at tidy up time.

We are kind to each other.

We look after property.

We try our best.

We have TRUE British Values

Democracy

We share our views and experiences.

We are asked what we would like to do.

We always take turns and share.

We respect each others' views.

We have a school council for our youth parliament.

We can share our opinions on school during pupil voice sessions.

We are encouraged to be healthy.

Spiritual

We respect each other's faith, feelings and values.

We learn about ourselves.

We are listened to when we need help.

We learn about the surrounding world.

We use our imagination and creativity.

We are encouraged to reflect.

Moral

We are learning to recognise right from wrong.

We are learning to understand consequences of our actions.

We investigate moral and ethical issues.

Social

We participate in the community.

We have whole school assemblies every week.

We appreciate each others' views.

We join in and cooperate.

We resolve our conflicts through restorative justice.

We have good British Values.

Cultural

We appreciate other cultures and influences.

We appreciate the role of Britain's parliament.

We are learning to accept, respect and celebrate diversity.